Nominate seven for new Chamber Board

As a result of the nominations received from the general membership, seven people have been nominated to run for the three vacant offices on the Board of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Nominated are Florence Babusek of the State Bank of Antioch, Phil Dahl of Kirkpatrick and Dahl, Dennis Dempsey of Century Oaks Cabinets, Rosemary DeNatale, the Lake County Market Journal, Peter Fischer, the First National Bank of Antioch, Larry Hansen of B. J.'s Fashions and Sandy Sigmeier of Jack's Four Squires.

Chamber members will vote for three candidates before Dec. 15. The winners will be installed at the annual Chamber Dinner Dance on Jan. 19, at the Tower Room on Rte. 173 in Antioch.

ACHS will hold its first Dickens Fest

Step back into the "Dickens Era of Time" and enjoy the Christmas spirit at Antioch Community High School's "Dickens Christmas Festival," at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 15, and at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 16.

Festivities will start in the commons area and nearby hallways where strolling carolers will sing, instrumental groups will play and vendors and merchants will sell their arts and crafts as well as Christmas delicacies to eat and drink.

Watch while pottery is made on the potter's wheel, the art of candle making is explained, and, be swept away with the fun and merriment of a time long gone by.

The climax of the festival will be the production of the two act version of Charles Dicken's "A Christmas Carol" in the auditorium. Drama students will enact the tale of Tiny Tim and the infamous Scrooge.

Well over 50 music, art and drama students are involved in this gala event offered by the fine arts department under the direction of Ralph Brooke, vocal director/head of department; John Olisar, instrumental director; Sara Redd and Suzanne Townes art teachers; and Ken Smouse drama director, all lend their talents to make this special event possible for the first time.

Come ye one, come ye all, to the high school to enjoy the Charles Dickens Christmas Festival. Tickets are available from members of the fine arts department or at the door.

Man saved as car plunges in pond

An Antioch area man, James Tomasik, 25, was rescued when his car left the road and sank into the water off Grass Lake Rd.

Sources report that John Stietz, 19, and John Haley were westbound on Grass Lake Rd. in a Deimer Plumbing truck when the car in front of them left the roadway and sank in the water of a pond on the side of the road.

The car reportedly rose to the surface but the person that the witnesses saw in the car did not leave the car.

Stietz went into the water that was over his head and, after vainly trying to get the car door open, broke the back window and got the driver out.

According to the Lake County Sheriff Dept.'s report Tomasik was incoherent and did not know what had happened.

Terry Boston from the Why Not Inn said that the Antioch Rescue Squad transported Tomasik to the hospital.

The possibility that he suffered an epileptic fit that caused the accident has been reported.

The accident occurred on Dec. 3.

Good news in The News

Christmas party

The Antioch Township Republican Club will hold its annual Christmas party on Dec. 15 at the Harbor Ridge Country Club.

Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $12.50 per person. There will be a grab bag for those who wish to participate. Call (312) 395-1872 or (312) 395-6916 for further information.

Reservations must be in by Dec. 7. All members and guests are welcome.

Messiah at St. Peter's

The Christmas portion of George Frideric Handel's "Messiah" will be performed on Dec. 23, at 8 p.m., in St. Peter's Catholic Church, 557 Lake St., Antioch.

The most famous of Handel's works, the "Messiah" proclaims Christ's coming in song.

For many people, attending or performing the "Messiah" has become a Christmas tradition. For many, Christmas is incomplete without listening to the Hallelujah Chorus.

Jaycee Christmas party

The next meeting of the Antioch Jaycees will be Dec. 13 at the Windjammer. It will be the Christmas meeting and will be a party.

Cocktails will be at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m. There will be Christmas gifts. Jaycees are to let Dave Waters know if they will be attending no later than Dec. 30.

Carriers wanted

The Antioch News has openings for paper carriers.

Boys and girls interested in Antioch News carrier routes are invited to apply at the News office, 952 Main St., or call (312) 395-8700 for information.

Puppet show

The Antioch Township Library will be having a marionette puppet production, Wednesday, Dec. 19, at 7 p.m.

Ashton's Puppet Power Productions story of "The Fantastic Workshop" will be played. All ages are welcome and the show is free.

Groups plan songs downtown

Various community groups will carol in the shopping areas of Antioch to bring in a little of the holiday season.

Board picks Fisher to fill vacant seat

Tom Fisher, Antioch Police lieutenant, has been appointed to the Antioch High School Board at a special meeting of that body.

Fisher will fill the seat vacated by the resignation of Anthony Starcevic who moved out of the area.

Fisher, who is also a member of the St. Peters School Board, will hold that seat until November of 1985.

MALL TO HAVE CAROLERS — Christmas Carols will be performed by strolling carolers dressed in authentic Victorian garb, from Monday through Friday, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, and from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sundays, beginning Saturday, Dec. 15 and continuing through Sunday, Dec. 23. Carolers will be, from left, rear, Keith Boehm, Antioch, Peter Thelen, Lake Forest, Genie Godula, Barrington, Cynthia Flannigan, Round Lake and Rosaline Trusky from Winthrop Harbor. Singers not shown in picture are Marietta DePrima, Libertyville, and Rob Held, Indianapolis, Ind..

Crime Stoppers features Steve Haley shooting

Lake County Crime Stoppers is seeking information about a shooting which occurred at approximately 4:20 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 27.

Steve Haley lives in an apartment above Haley's Oasis, which is a tavern located on the northeast corner of Rte. 83 and Grasslake Rd. The bar had been closed for hours when Haley heard a loud banging noise outside. He got dressed and walked down the outside stairway with a 22 caliber pistol he had gotten from the apartment.

When Haley got to the bottom of the stairway, he was attacked and knocked to the ground. He started wrestling with the subject with the gun in his hand. During the fight, the weapon went off four times, the last round striking him in the side.

The subject then got up and started running. A short time later, Haley heard a car and saw a rust or brown colored Dodge or Plymouth leave the parking lot onto Grasslake Rd.

The subject is described as a male/white, about 6 feet tall and weighed 210 pounds. He had a full beard and was wearing a dark colored nylon coat. Haley told the police that there could have been as many as three other individuals standing around when he was wrestling with the subject.

Lake County Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000 for information which leads to the arrest and indictment of the person responsible for this crime.

Crime Stoppers also pays cash rewards for information about other felony crimes and felony fugitives.

Contact Lake County Crime Stoppers at (312) 662-2222. If the call is long distance, then call collect. Remember, Crime Stoppers wants information, not the caller's name.

As of Dec. 1, the emergency telephone number for the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. has changed. The new number is (312) 680-1111 and should be used to report crimes in progress, accidents or any other event requiring immediate police attention.

The 24-hour non-emergency telephone number is (312) 680-3550. The sheriff's department main business phone in Waukegan is still (312) 689-6300. This number should be used for administration, civil process, investigations, jail records and warrants.

Schedule pressure tests

Free Blood Pressure Screening will be offered to the public on Thursday, Dec. 20 at St. Therese Area Trauma Satellite (STATS), located on Rte. 59, just south of Grand Avenue in Lake Villa. No registration is required, just stop by between 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

The medical term for high blood pressure is "hypertension." Left untreated, high blood pressure increases the risk of premature illness or death from coronary heart disease, stroke, and heart or kidney failure.

One out of every seven Americans has high blood pressure. Yet, three-fourths of our people still do not know all the facts about this dangerous disease.

Nutcracker

The Antioch Area Senior Center still has tickets available for its trip to the 2 p.m. Dec. 19 showing of the Nutcracker in Chicago. Please call (312) 395-7120 for more information.

Town & Country elects officers

The Town and Country 4-H Club has begun its new year with several activities.

Christy Robinson was elected president; Amy Jester, vice president; Marlee Kuhm, secretary; Kelly Cain, treasurer and Debbie Christensen as historian. Projects for the new year were selected and the calendar committee planned upcoming events.

The club observed National 4-H Week by placing a display in the Antioch Township Library. The group received an A ribbon in a county-wide promotion. Projects work was done on making wreaths. Cain planned and hosted a Halloween party for her Teens En-tain project at the end of the meeting.

The People to People activity was the club's study of Japan. Robinson and her family hosted a girl, Maki, from Japan this summer. Christy shared her experiences with the members. She also had a display of the many gifts Maki had given her. During the meeting, she taught everyone how to eat rice with chopsticks. There will be a display in the library during January.

Plans were made to go Christmas caroling, a cookie exchange and food to be brought for the Community Food Pantry as a community service project at the next meeting.

Mary Kies of Connecticut was the first woman to be granted a U.S. patent. It was awarded in 1809 for a "new and useful improvement in weaving straw with silk or thread."

Red Cross plans advanced course

The American Red Cross will be starting an Advanced First Aid Course at the Red Cross office in Mundelein on Tuesday, Jan. 8. The classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 7-10 p.m. and will run through March 14.

The Advanced First Aid course is designed for use by persons who are responsible for giving emergency care to the sick and injured. It is an excellent training program for policemen, firemen, ski patrol members and others who are responsible for the safety of others.

For more information on this course, call the Red Cross at (312) 949-1000.

Fields, others re-election

Antioch Twp. Supervisor Jim Fields has announced he will seek re-election to a third term in the April 1985 election. Fields has been supervisor since 1977. He has organized the Citizens Independent Party to compete in the township elections.

The Citizens Independent Party has slated the following candidates: supervisor, Jim Fields; township clerk, Richard Harland; assessor, R.G. "Bud" Holz; road commissioner, David Heath; trustee, Richard Kufalk; trustee, Rudy Eckert; trustee, Homer LaPlant; trustee, Lillian Golonka.

All the candidates running on the Citizens Independent Party are incumbent members of the current township government. Jim Fields is not only supervisor, but he has been a member of the Lake County Board since 1980. Last November, Fields was re-elected to a full four-year term on the County Board.

Currently, the Antioch Township supervisor earns an annual salary of $21,500.

Toastmasters set meeting

An organizational meeting for a Toastmasters Club is being planned for the Antioch area for last January.

District 30, the Chicago Area Toastmasters Organizations, is composed of over 100 clubs in both local communities and in companies.

There are over 5,000 Toastmasters Clubs throughout the United States and some 50 foreign countries.

Toastmasters meeting will generally have three phases of participation. The Table Topics session provides members an opportunity to speak in an impromptu fashion on a topic on a subject chosen for them at random.

The second portion of the program consists of prepared speeches, which are in turn evaluated in an effort to provide some helpful suggestions and means of improvement for each speaker.

A demonstration meeting is generally the first step in acquainting the community with the Toastmasters program and consequently starting a club.

Interested parties are invited to call Jerry Boehm at (815) 395-2884 for further information on the time and the place of the demonstration meeting.

Many activities set for seniors at center

Several special activities are planned for the month of December at the Antioch Area Senior Center. The Christmas party will be held on Dec. 20, from 1-3:30 p.m.

The Wolfe Family Band will entertain at 1 p.m. Santa Claus will arrive with his bag of goodies at 2:30 p.m.

Additional holiday entertainment includes caroling in the village on Dec. 18 and local school children singing at the center on both Dec. 13 and 17.

All are welcome to join the trip to the Arie Crown Theatre on Dec. 19 to see the "Nutcracker Ballet." Cost is $18 and includes a front balcony seat and transportation on a fully equipped motor coach.

Dec. 26 will be "Grandparents Day" at the center. Local seniors are invited to bring their grandchildren for a day of fun especially designed for the kids.

Ongoing programs include crewel instruction on Wednesday afternoons, crafts on Wednesday mornings, and Bible study on Thursday morning.

New Year's Eve will be celebrated at 1 p.m., on Dec. 31 with a party to cheer in the New Year. Fortunes will be told.

To participate in any of this programs, to register for lunch, or for more information, call the Antioch Senior Center at (312) 395-7120.

The Time Machine

When I think about it We all need traditions!

by GLORIA DAVIS

I once read that all families should have traditions, especially in connection with holidays.

It was not too clear to me as to why they must, but I read it, so it must be true. Everybody knows that everything in print has to be factual!

Now I didn't check to see who the writer of this renowned thought was. It might have been a vindictive mother-in-law trying to start a family fight with, "Well my mother used to get up at 3 a.m. every Christmas morning to bake her special Christmas Stollen for our holiday breakfast."

Wasn't that wonderful! And I bet this spoiled son doesn't even send her a Christmas card in the funny farm.

Tons of homemade Christmas cookies rolling out of the oven a few weeks before the holiday is another tradition in many households.

This one I like, as long as it takes place in another household and some of that delicious booty makes it way into my cupboards as gifts or what-have-you.

I made Christmas cookies with my kids once, the only trouble was, not being a "from scratch" homemaker, who would know the difference between baking powder and baking soda or what the word "sift" meant, we ended up $22 later with 12 giant strange looking cookies that tasted like baking soda.

Of course my kids were in on the whole thing and should shoulder part of the blame, after all they were four, five six and seven years old!

Some people pride themselves in making hand-made gifts for everyone on their lists.

This is fine unless you were born with 12 thumbs like I was. Take my word for it no one is desperate enough for a Christmas gift to want a macaroni covered candle (sprayed with gold and glitter of course). Well—it's the only thing I ever made that turned out, or sort of turned out.

Five years of crunching on macaroni shells as I walk across my kitchen floor and also because I've had a hard time convincing anyone that gold-spray-spots on the wall are really in, have killed any creativity I ever possessed.

So stop with the tsk-tsks already, after hours of thought and thousands of false starts I did too find a tradition indigenous to my family and my family alone.

I call it coloring a Christmas tree because that's what I did. Every year while my kids were growing up I colored our Christmas tree a different color.

Who cares that they kept saying, "Mom why can't we have a green Christmas tree like everyone else?" How could it be our own tradition if everyone else did it, right?

I want you to know that creating this tradition wasn't easy. You try taking a live tree out into the yard with 20 cans of spray paint while four little kids sit watching you with tears in their eyes as you "kill" their Christmas tree.

It took a lot of perseverance to face my husband's wrath when he finally realized that the paint plus different ornaments every year was making this a costly proposition. But I kept on singing, "tradition, tradition," with a Zero Mostel accent of course.

And explaining to the police chief that that red snow in the yard wasn't really caused by bleeding of any kind but was just the residue of turning a tree from green to red isn't a lot of fun. Yet I kept singing "tradition, tradition," with even stronger resolve.

We had a gold Christmas tree covered with sparkly oranges; a purple one adorned with pink velvet bows and pink marshmallow ice cream cones; and a pink one trimmed with red lollipops, red satin balls and red silk stockings.

The red one I spoke of before had white feathery doves on its branches and white shimmering garland wrapped around it.

Let me mentioned that the trees died as soon as the fire-proof paint hit the needles which were immediately glued to the branches by the paint, eliminating two of the common "real tree" complaints. There were never any needles to vacuum up and the tree was fire proof.

The black one was by far the prettiest of all, although even I will admit that this was more of an artistic effort than a Christmas tree.

We decorated it all in gold and white and red ornaments left over from the trees of previous years. That year my husband didn't holler quite as much.

How's that for creating a unique tradition? Strange as it may seem none of my kids developed even the smallest phobia or hang-up because they never had a green tree.

They may not be any better than the 75 percent of the people out there that have been dubbed psychotic—but I'm sure my little tradition is blameless in this respect.

The first Christmas that I decided all this was too much work for a childless house, the kids arrived for Christmas dinner and I was greeted with, "What color is the tree this year," said, believe or not, with a touch of anticipation.

You should have seen the disappointment on their faces when they sighted the very normal green artificial edifice under which the presents were stacked.

So if you must have traditions, it's obvious that they don't really have to be traditional ones.

FIFTY YEARS AGO: Dec. 13, 1934

Kings Drug Store was advertising the last word in radio, a four-band radio that received foreign stations, police and air-plane calls.

The U. S. Government was advertising many new government positions open paying from $1,260 to $2,100 per year.

The Antioch Future Farmers Band, consisting of Howard Bonner, Frank Zeien, leader, Frank Verkest, Chester Craft, and Robert Griffin, performed one out of the five top numbers on the Country Life Radio Night and Talent Discovering radio program.

Walter Hills was named chairman of a committee of the local American Legion Post to sponsor the local Boy Scout Troop.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wolff spent the winter in California. The Soo Line was advertising holiday trips to cost two cents a mile each way.

THIRTY YEARS AGO: Dec. 16, 1954

Charles Cermack, Jr.'s bowling team beat the team of his brother-in-law, Francis Schmidt.

Garnet Seyfarth, Robert Wilton and David Cain made the senior honor roll at Antioch Township High School.

John and Mary Topercer purchased the Pantry Grill on Main St..

The American Legion was investigating the possibility of bringing back the pre-war years and holding teen ice skating parties on Antioch Lake.

Carol Frazier, Janet Rogers, Antoinette Nering, Kathy Arndt, Mary Lou Seyfarth and Pat Palmer were a singing sextet in the high school Christmas Concert.

Radios, televisions and record players topped the Christmas lists.

Luisa Voss was returning home for Christmas vacation after attending Ferry Hall at Lake Forest.

TEN YEARS AGO: Dec. 18, 1974

Antioch voters, by a mere 10-ballot margin, approved a referendum on increasing the Antioch Grade School Dist.'s education fund.

The village decided to build a new ice skating pond at the sewage treatment plant.

Rich Witton and Jeff Gutowski won their Boy Scout Eagle badges.

Gert Ipsen and Jeanette Lenczowski opened Ipsen Cleaners on Lake St..

Norma Garvin was one of the 100 finalists in the Pillsbury Bakeoff.

Kim Briedel won first prize and John Jackson won second prize for their essays entitled, "Why I Like It in Antioch," sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch and backed by several community businesses and organizations.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

With the wonderful athletic training that our high school kids get at Antioch High School, it's no wonder that they traditionally do so well in college sports.

Steve Jennerich, a four year letter-winner for the Elmhurst College Bluejays, has been named to the first team of the college's conference all conference football team.

Rod Steiskal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steiskal, a freshman business major at Carthage College, Kenosha, earned his first football letter during fall's football season.

Mike Mueller, a junior at Lake Forest Academy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sigfried Muller, earned his varsity football letter.

Speaking of college students, I hear that Debbie Morris is a member of the fall pledge class of Pi Beta Phi at Millikin University in Decatur, Ill.

Nick Zeien, a sophomore chemistry major and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zeien, made the fall honor roll at Monmouth College, Monmouth.

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce is going to see that local shoppers have an easier time shopping in Antioch this year when they put covers on the parking meters.

The Chamber will put the covers that they got from the police department on the parking meters from Dec. 17 to Jan. 2.

Don't forget that Santa has appointed hours to be in his castle on Orchard St. and Toft Ave. so the kids can deliver their Christmas lists to him in person.

For kids that really want to make sure that Santa knows what to bring them, he's still getting lots of letters at 100 Toy and Rd., Antioch. For a while he will still have time to answer them through the Antioch Jaycettes.

The Antioch Police Chief came to the defense of his department in the case of "The Ice Cream Bandit." He said that his officers originally charged Larry Summers with armed robbery even though it was a starter gun that was used because, "In my book even a hand in a pocket pretending to be a gun constitutes armed robbery. It was the states attorneys office that lowered the charge."

Antioch groups helps in recycling planning

Through a joint effort of the Lake County Solid Waste Advisory Committee (SWAC), the North Shore Ecology Center (NSEC), and many Lake County municipalities and civic service groups, several new drop-off recycling centers are in the works for Lake County.

The NSEC is a not-for-profit tax exempt and tax deductible corporation established in 1971 organized to educate and involve the public in the conservation movement.

At a November 27, 1984 Recycling Subcommittee meeting of the SWAC, George Brabec, director of NSEC, made a proposal to manage and operate several new drop-off recycling centers in the county.

In return for a site, initial funding for containers, marketing materials, and locally, as well, citing the Village of Glencoe's publicity campaign as a major reason for a high participation rate at its recycling center.

Representatives from the municipalities of Waukegan, Gurnee, Grayslake and Elmhurst; the Zion Environmental Concerns Commission; Citizens for Conservation (Barrington); the Antioch Commission on the Environment and the North Suburb Group of the Sierra Club attended the meeting.

"Our goal is to make recycling as easy as possible for the participants," Brabec told the group of municipal and civic group leaders at the meeting.

"We ask participants to deposit glass in containers according to color, all metals (tin and aluminum cans) in one container, and newsprint and other paper in one container. Our centers are open 24 hours a day," he added.

Recycling has a number of benefits to the community as well: conservation of trees and energy; clean air; reduction in land required for landfilling our daily garbage; reduction in the cost of disposing of our waste and in producing new consumer products. Jobs are also produced.

As participation rates increase at new recycling centers, Brabec said, local residents will probably be hired to maintain them. High school and college students are currently employed to maintain NSEC's 14 existing recycling centers.

Anyone wanting recycling in a community can contact local elected officials or Bob Burlingham (312) 689-6350 at the Lake County Planning Dept.

St. Therese appoints Druhan

John L. Druhan has been named director of development at St. Therese Hospital. He will work closely with the Janssen Foundation.

The Janssen Foundation was established in 1982 as an affiliate of St. Therese Hospital and functions as a fund-raising and development entity. Its sole purpose is to seek charitable gifts from a wide variety of sources outside the hospital. These funds will be available to the hospital to be used to enhance its mission of caring.

Druhan comes to St. Therese with 15 years experience in development, the last five which were spent as the associate director of development at the Columbus-Cuneo-Cabrini Medical Center in Chicago. He recently returned to Lake County after living 24 years in the far south suburb of Tinley Park. Druhan says that coming to St. Therese is like returning home since five of his children were born here. He now resides in Wildwood with his wife, Rosalyn.

The recently completed five-year expansion and remodeling program, plus the latest in state-of-the-art medical equipment, has, for the most part, been funded by tax exempt bond issues.

Masons donate Yule tree

Frank Mostowski, W.M. of Sequoit Lodge No. 827 A.F. & A.M. announced that the members of Sequoit Lodge have purchased and donated to the Lake County Youth Home a large, fireproof, artificial Christmas Tree for use and enjoyment by the staff and temporary residents of the detention center during this and future holiday seasons.

Michael J. Mortensen, a member of Sequoit Lodge and acting on behalf of the lodge brethren made the presentation of the tree to officials of the Hulse Center in Waukegan on Dec. 5. The detention center which serves all of Lake County is a division of the Lake County Dept. of Court Services.

At present the members of the lodge are also busy in preparation for the annual distribution of food baskets for the needy which will be delivered to those in need later this month.

The first letter boxes were erected in Paris in 1653.

Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Neal W. Pringle

Schreiber—Pringle

Lynn M. Schreiber of Antioch and Neal W. Pringle of Fox Lake were married in an early afternoon ceremony at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Antioch by The Rev. Francis Kub. Cynthia Ladin was matron of honor for her sister and also made the bride's gown. Nicole Cadigan performed the duties of flower girl for her aunt.

The bride's brother Doug Schreiber was best man, and Dave DeBoer and Roger Cheverette, brother-in-law of the groom, were ushers.

The bride's wedding ring is an heirloom from her maternal grandmother. The St. Peter's church choir, of which the former Miss Schreiber is a member, sang at the ceremony.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Pringle received guests at Lake Barrington Shores in Barrington. They honeymooned in Los Angeles and San Diego and cruised the Hawaiian Islands.

They are at home in Fox Lake in a house built by the bride's father.

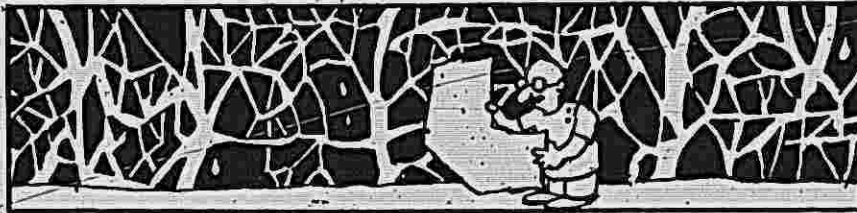

Klaczak joins business fraternity

John Klaczak, Antioch, has been initiated into the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater chapter of Pi Sigma Epsilon for the fall semester.

Pi Sigma Epsilon is a national professional fraternity in marketing, sales management, and selling. The campus Beta Gamma Chapter is an especially active group which have won seven national titles in the past 15 years. Their activities include the Whitewater City Heart Fund Drive.

Klaczak is a freshman in marketing at UW-Whitewater.

Engagement ————— Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schwanbeck Jr.

Perks—Schwanbeck

Two Antioch Community High School graduates were united in marriage at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Antioch by The Rev. Lawrence Hanley.

Linda Perks of Antioch and Kenneth Schwanbeck Jr. of Lake Villa were united Oct. 6 in an afternoon ceremony.

She is the daughter of William and Marguerite Pringle of Antioch and Robert and Helen Perks of Long Island, N.Y. Her bridegroom is the son of Kenneth and Jane Schwanbeck of Lake Villa.

Lori Perks performed the duties of maid of honor for her sister, and Carol Schwanbeck, the groom's sister, and Chris Sabar were bridesmaids.

Mary Dschedia performed the duties of best man, and the groom's brother-in-law Mark Larsen and Kurt Larson were groomsmen.

The couple received guests at Maravela's in Ingleside and took a honeymoon cruise to San Juan, St. Thomas and Nassau in the Caribbean.

The bride is employed as a nurse's assistant by St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan and her husband is employed as a mechanic by Jim Sorenson Chevrolet in Waukegan.

They are at home in Lake Villa.

Lovell—McAvoy

Two Antioch families were united when Angela Marie Lovell and Thomas J. McAvoy were married in a double-ring ceremony Oct. 20 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Antioch by The Rev. Lawrence Hanley.

The former Miss Lovell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lovell of Antioch, and her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John McAvoy of Antioch.

Debra Flicek performed the duties of matron of honor for her sister, and Kim Ventura, Kim Leker and Terri Schintgen were bridesmaids. Erin McAvoy, niece of the groom, served as flower girl.

Mike McAvoy, brother of the groom, served as best man, and John McAvoy, brother of the groom, Danny Vos and Pat Schloss completed the party.

Ushers were Paul Petty and Charlie Gandolfi. Shaun McAvoy, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The newlyweds received guests at Maravela's in Ingleside and took a one-week honeymoon to Las Vegas.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Mundelein High School and attended the College of Lake County. She is an account executive for Six Flags Great America.

Her bridegroom is a 1976 graduate of Antioch Community High School and a graduate of Iowa Wesleyan College in Mt. Pleasant. He is a physical education teacher and coach at Magee Junior High School in Round Lake.

The new Mr. and Mrs. McAvoy are at home in Antioch.

Badger Ploss plays well

John Ploss, Center, 6'-9", 220 pounds, senior at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, is averaging 25 minutes per game as the Badgers have jumped out to a 3-0 record.

His season high in scoring came in 61-59 win over Washington State when he added 12 points.

His career high was set against Marquette in February, when he scored 14 points. Currently averaging eight points per game he is shooting 36 percent from the field (9-25) and 54.5 percent from the free throw line (6-11).

He is a strong aggressive player who needs to remain out of foul trouble if the Badgers wish to control the boards. He has blocked five shots and made three steals this season. His season high is seven rebounds against Morgan State. Ploss started 21 of 26 games last season. Named the team's "Most Improved Player" for 1983-84 season, he averaged 2.4 points and 2.4 rebounds per game.

Quote from John Ploss:

"I'm trying to be more aggressive but I have to cut back on the fouls. We have a better mental attitude and are more aggressive this season. I'm not the only one crashing the boards, it's a team effort."

He earned honorable mention all-state status as a senior at Antioch High School, averaging 27 points per game. He is majoring in landscape architecture.

Christmas Results — comes to Allendale

The arrival of the Christmas season at Allendale is evidenced by the large "Snowflake" atop the Allendale water tower. At nighttime, this holiday decoration can be seen for miles. It is a fine tradition and lends much to the holiday spirit of the area.

The first visit by Santa Claus, was made possible by the 10th District of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary also on Saturday. The annual Legion visit was highlighted with a luncheon for the 45 Legion volunteers and the boys and staff of Allendale. Santa was overheard saying that the hotdogs and specially prepared beans are a great treat.

Under the direction of Laverne Brady, 1984 Christmas chairwoman, individual gifts were presented to each boy. These presents consisted of educational games, books, models, and puzzles. This event is one of the main holiday highlights for Allendale and the volunteers.

As the arrival of Christmas gets closer, the students at Allendale are preparing their classrooms and cottages in traditional ways. Live Christmas trees are being put into place and decorated with handmade ornaments, decorations are being placed on School bulletin boards.

Final plans are being made for the Annual Christmas Pageant with participation by Allendale boys and staff. This annual event is held in the Farwell Chapel at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 16. Immediately following this event the entire group will walk over to the Myers Gymnasium for the arrival of Santa and the distribution of gifts.

The gifts to be presented to each Allendale resident are provided, primarily, by the member of the Boys' Shelter Club, and Allendale Auxiliary.

For further information, contact Wayne E. Parthun, director of operations and development at (312) 356-2351.

Jones takes title

Lakeview Hills Health and Racquet Club proudly announces the winning of the title of "Mr. Chicago" by Dan Jones of Antioch.

Jones is the son of Wes and Ethel Jones of Antioch. He has been working out at Lakeview Hills for the last year in order to attain this title.

He will be in competition in May for the title of "Mr. Illinois".

Bette Meyer, manager of Lakeview Hills has announced that Jones will be on the staff at the club to assist members in the use of both exercise and weight lifting equipment.

Child abuse task force to meet

According to Lake County States Atty. Fred Foreman, committees I and II of the Sexual Child Abuse Task Force have been meeting on a regular basis since the Oct. 10 meeting.

Each committee has split into sub-committees and made significant gains toward the objectives. At this point, it is important to meet as a task force to review the ideas of each committee.

This will bring everyone up-to-date on the progress toward developing and implementing a model system for handling sexual child abuse cases.

It will give a chance to discuss how plans for implementing the model fit with plans for the model system. Finally, the committees will be able to return to their tasks with direction and insight gained from the information and feedback received. A meeting of the Sexual Child Abuse Task Force will be held on Dec. 12 at 8:15 p.m. on the 10th floor of the County Bldg.

Sequoits to face Wildcats

by MIKE PRAMSHAFFER

The Antioch Sequoit boy's varsity basketball team will try to avenge its 71-55 loss to the Libertyville Wildcats when the two teams meet in a North Suburban game on Friday, Dec. 14 at Libertyville.

Antioch head coach Don Zeman feels the key to a Sequoit victory will be controlling the pace of the game and running the offense.

"We have to run our offense and get the good percentage shot. We're going to have to patient on offense, and try to get the ball up court against their full-court press," Zeman said.

Zeman said the Sequoits will probably use a slow-down type offense in an effort to keep the Wildcats away from their fast-break tempo.

"We're going to run a slow-down type offense. We don't want them getting into their fast-break offense against us," Zeman said.

Antioch will most likely use a zone defense, as they did against Lake Forest last weekend.

"Our zone defense was pretty successful against Lake Forest. I think we'll be able to control them a little better with a zone," Zeman said.

The two teams met in the Barrington Thanksgiving Tournament and Zeman believes it will be a different ballgame this time around.

"I think we're a lot stronger on the boards now than we were then. We're also a lot smarter. I don't think we'll have as big a problem with their press this time around either," he said.

Libertyville defeated Antioch at Barrington 71-55, thanks mostly to the Wildcat full-court press.

The Sequoits are coming off a 51-40 victory over the Lake Forest Scouts, while the Wildcats are coming off a 56-43 loss at the hands of the Zion-Benton ZeeBees.

Antioch is now 1-1 in conference play (1-4 overall) as is Libertyville.

In the Lake Forest game, the Sequoits ran off 11 points in the first 2:30 of the fourth quarter to overcome a 31-29 deficit.

"That stretch was the key to our victory. We came out hustling and it really paid off," Zeman said.

Senior Chris Zeien scored seven of the 11 points in that stretch.

Seniors Dave Hart, Brad Poulter and Joe Keim, as well as Junior Don Gunther were all singled out by Zeman as having an exceptional game.

Hart led the Sequoits in scoring with 14 points, while Zeien and Gunther chipped in with 12 and 10 points respectively.

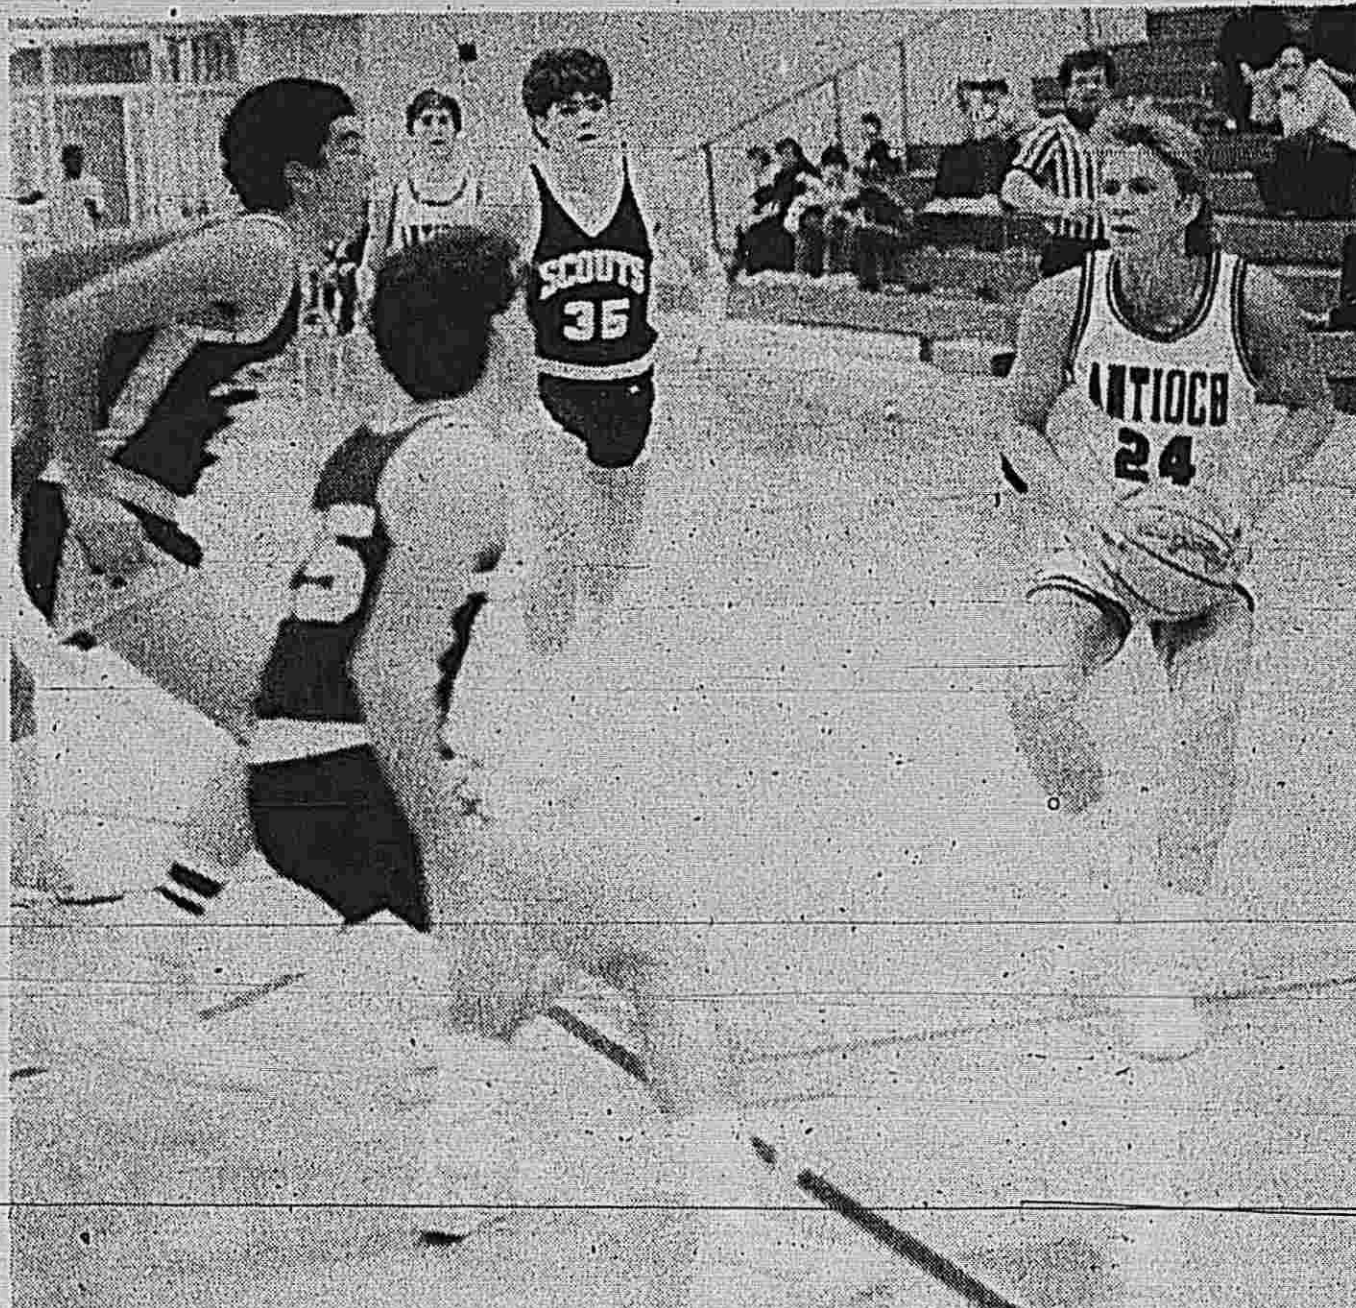

Keim led the Sequoits with 11 rebounds, while Gunther added nine. Hart had five offensive rebounds.

"Poulter and Zeien have steadily improved since the season began. The whole team has, as a matter of fact," Zeman said.

The presence of Poulter really made a difference in the Lake Forest game, according to Zeman.

"Brad is a control ball player. He played the entire game against Lake Forest and didn't commit one turnover. That's an accomplishment," Zeman said.

The Sequoits committed 11 turnovers total against the Scouts, the lowest total for Antioch this season.

Hearing Loss Is Not A Sign Of Old Age.

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest hearing aid Beltone has ever developed will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

It's yours for the asking, so send for it now. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. The actual aid weighs less than an eighth of an ounce, and it fits completely into the ear canal.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Although a hearing aid may not help everyone, more and more people with hearing losses are being helped. For your free sample write today to: Department 59927, Beltone Electronics Corporation, 4201 West Victoria Street, Chicago, IL 60646.

THE SOURCE OF THEIR POWER... COMES FROM YOUR HEART.

The warmth of this season brightens our lives. But not all hearts are light in Illinois. Some families will have to either pay bills, buy food or keep the children warm. For them—the needy, the aged, the unemployed, the sick—it will be a dreary and cheerless holiday. There simply won't be enough money, and the choices of which bills to pay will strain the family spirit.

So much depends on electricity. For most of us, it's automatic. For others, it is more than pleasure. It is the energy source which heats, cools, cooks and warms. Open your heart this year. Give the gift of light to our less fortunate neighbors. One small gift less to those who get so much can mean a brighter holiday for those who have so little.

The Consumer Participation Fund, initiated by Commonwealth Edison, is administered by the Salvation Army. Give all you can. Last year, the CPF assisted more than 10,000 needy families. With your support, we can help even more of our neighbors this year. We will match your tax-deductible contribution up to $250,000 total.

This will help in 1984. But a permanent solution to help the needy must be found. We believe it's a responsibility that rests with the Illinois legislature. We support a plan to use a portion of the public utility tax we pay. We urge you to join us in contacting the elected officials of the state and helping work toward a legislative remedy for this ongoing problem.

Until a permanent solution is found, Illinois residents who never imagined they would not be able to meet their obligations will have to rely on the generosity in your heart. Light somebody's night this holiday. It'll make your day. Send your tax-deductible check or money order today to:
